

Job Description – Copywriter

Location: Yagoona, NSW

Organisation Type: Not-for-Profit

Employment Type: Full-time

Reports To: Business Operations Manager

Join a Mission-Driven Team Where Your Work Truly Matters

Are you passionate about your Catholic faith and ready to put your writing talents to work for a cause that aligns with your deepest convictions? This is more than just a job — it's an opportunity to make a real impact on the issues you care about most, from defending life and faith to confronting the rise of woke ideology.

We offer a dynamic and values-driven work environment where your beliefs aren't just welcomed — they're the foundation of everything we do. As a Copywriter, you'll join an internationally coordinated team and develop professional skills in copywriting, fundraising, and online marketing. You'll be part of a mission that speaks boldly in today's cultural climate, and your work will directly contribute to shaping public discourse and defending Christian values.

Enjoy the flexibility of remote work, a salary that reflects your skills and experience, and the exciting possibility of travel abroad for training and development.

If you're a practising Catholic who wants your professional life to reflect your personal values — and you're ready to speak out with clarity and conviction — this could be the role you've been waiting for. Read on to see if you're a good fit.

Requirements

- A practising Catholic committed to the teachings of the Church
- Interest in current news and cultural debates (e.g. abortion, gender ideology, freedom of religion, wokeism)
- Strong command of English (Australian English standard)
- Excellent writing ability and a productive work ethic
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, and general computer skills

Preferred

- Based in the Sydney region
- Available for full-time work
- Australian-born candidates encouraged
